

At its meeting on July 11, 2025, the Connecticut Bar Examining Committee adopted the following revisions to its regulations. These revisions were published in the Connecticut Law Journal on July 29, 2025, and become effective October 27, 2025. Additions are signified by underlining.

ARTICLE III.
ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION AND ADMISSION BY TRANSFER OF A UNIFORM BAR
EXAMINATION SCORE

Art. III-1.

(A) The application to take the bar examination and for admission to the bar shall be filed between March 01 and April 30 for a July examination and between October 01 and November 30 for a February examination. Applications filed between March 01 and March 31 for a July examination or between October 01 and October 31 for a February examination shall be filed together with the fee prescribed by Article X-1(A)(1). Applications filed between April 01 and April 30 for a July examination or November 01 and November 30 for a February examination shall be filed together with the fee prescribed by Article X-1(A)(2).

....

(C) An applicant who fails to pass a Connecticut bar examination shall be permitted to file an application for the next administration of the bar examination within three weeks of the release of the results of the prior examination.

(D) After four (4) unsuccessful attempts on the Connecticut bar examination, an applicant may file an application only for the February administration of the bar examination.